Program: 25th Arab-German Business Forum

We have been living in a global pandemic for the past two years, putting enormous strains on our economies and personal lives. After months of depriving restrictions and adapting to the new normal, people still long for personal networking, face-to-face meetings, and the exchange of information.

Both our economy here in Germany and the economies in the Arab world are well on the way to recovering from past turns and even emerging stronger from the crisis. Certainly, nothing is more constant than change, and German-Arab business relations are also subject to continuous change. Nevertheless - or maybe because of that - they are deeply rooted, stable, and full of opportunities.

Numerous examples of true partnerships between Germany and Arab business partners have emerged. Only cooperation and joint growth can create a secure and stable framework urgently needed by both regions' economies.

To strengthen the Arab-German cooperation and discuss perspectives and challenges, it is our pleasure to invite you to the 25th Arab-German Business Forum at the Hotel Ritz-Carlton Berlin from 21-23 June 2022.

The three-day conference will continue as the leading platform for Arab-German business relations. The panel discussions, Ambassador roundtables, and country workshops with high-level and eloquent speakers will focus on key sectors that create opportunities and growth.

We and our cooperation partners are delighted to welcome you to an inspiring 25th Arab-German Business Forum.
